

Year 3.4 Spelling – Monday 5th June 2023

This week, the children are revising adding the prefixes:

un, in, re, do, dis, sub, anti and inter

. They will consider how the prefixes change the meaning of the words and which is used with which root word.

Examples: Please see the task below for this week's examples.

National Curriculum Words:

The words this week are:

height, history, imagine, increase, important.

Task

Challenge 2

Look at the root words in the grid, which do you think could you add either prefix, un, in, re, do, dis, sub, anti and inter

appear	build	hear	do
turn	climax	marine	behave

Challenge 3:

Look at the root words in the grid, which do you think could you add either prefix, un, in, re, do, dis, sub, anti and inter

What happens to the meaning of the word when you add the prefix? Now please learn these spellings by writing them into a sentence using a range of fronted adverbials and conjunctions. Please practise your spelling on J2E Spell Blast.
